

University Awards

Introduction

The technological and scientific advance, Kafrelsheikh University honors the best teaching staff and students in scientific research. Accordingly, this will have a positive reflection on them and will be a motive to prepare good scientific environment with which Kafrelsheikh University can compete with other Egyptian, regional and international universities.

On this basis, Kafrelsheikh University council decided to grant university awards for distinct outstanding teaching staff members for their efforts in scientific endeavours and research fields.

2- Awards goals

- Encouragement of researchers to develop the scientific research processes.
- Discretionary of scientific research.
- Insistence of Kafrelsheikh University to support researchers

3-The fields of university awards (Discretionary & Incentive Prizes) :-

The university annually presents 8 awards, four of them are for Discretionary Awards and the others are for Incentive Awards provided that there is an exchange every year between 4 awards on the following sciences :-

- 3-1- Basic sciences.
- 3-2- Agricultural sciences.
- 3-3- Economy and administration sciences.
- 3-4- Engineering sciences.
- 3-5- Social and human sciences.
- 3-6- Environmental science.
- 3-7- Veterinary medicine sciences.
- 3-8- Educational sciences.

4- Awards types

- 4-1- Discretionary university awards.
- 4-2- Incentive university awards.
- 4-3- Scientific publishing university awards.

4-1-Discretionary University award

4-1-1- Award's value:-

The university offers each winner 10000 Egyptian pounds and a certificate in one's field provided that a member must have 85% of the total score.

4-1-2- The conditions of the award:-

- The award is given to professors who stayed ten years in mastership and who spent in Egypt at least five years before standing to award.
- It is also given to professors who have valuable scientific research and who offered services during their professional career at the university.
- The award is granted only once to a professor throughout his professional life.

4-1-3- Choice of winners

- Vice president for postgraduate studies and research presents the files of the candidates to Awards Committee to examine them and select the winners according to selection criteria agreed upon from the Award Committee and the University Council.
- The award can be prevented from a candidate in the case of excluding him because of dissatisfying the criteria set by the awards committee or getting less than 85% of the total score.

4-2- University incentive award

4-2-1- The value of the award

The university gives each winner 5000 pounds and a certificate in one's field provided that a member must have 80% of the total score.

The award is granted to a staff member once throughout his professional life.

4-2-2- Conditions of the award:-

- The number of research must not be less than 3 research works in the field of the award's specialization published in ranked journals in the last five years. The scientific production should not be extracted from a scientific thesis, i.e it has to be brand new.
- The research must have a scientific value.
- The research should be based on new ideas with practical aspects.
- For the award of human sciences field, scientific works must have a deposition number in the House of Egyptian Books) Dar Al-Kotoub Al-Masriah.

4-2-3- The choice of winners:-

- Vice president for postgraduate studies and research presents the files of the candidates to Awards Committee.
- The Award Committee chooses three professors from the promotion committee in the award's field, sending the research with the selection criteria of Incentive Award to them and then the results are sent back to the vice president's office for postgraduate studies to display the results to the award committee and the committee which chooses the winners.
- % The award can be prevented from a candidate in the case of being excluded or getting less than 80% of the total score.
- The award is divided between two candidates in the case of getting each of them equal score which is more than 80%.

4-3- University scientific publishing award

4-3-1- The value of the award

- The researcher gets 1000 pounds which can be divided among the participants in the research.
- Researches published in Nature, Science and IEEE Journals get a grant of 10000 LE extra.

4-3-2- The conditions of the award

- The candidate presents the research works with the journal in which they were published with a request to department head to present it to the department council to get an approval for the award.
- The department council approval is essential for the faculty council.
- The faculty dean addresses the vice president for postgraduate studies and research with the acceptance to grant the award.
- The candidate should sign the research and present an outline including scientific and practical value of the research on a CD.
- It is not allowed to present the research more than one time.
- Publishing the research should not take more than one year in an international journal.
- The journal where the research is published should be a ranked journal
- Researches published On-Line are not accepted
- Researches in Press are not accepted
- The Award Committee can add and change any materials to serve the research process and publication.

- Vice president for postgraduate studies and research presents the research works to the Award Committee to grant the award.